

The Danbury Branch of the Connecticut Holistic Health Association (CHHA)

in partnership with

Western Connecticut State University

presents:

Homeopathy in Health Care and Treatment with Diana Gubbay

Tuesday, June 14, 2005

6:30 PM – 8:30 PM

WCSU Midtown Campus – Warner Hall
181 White Street, Danbury, CT (directions on back)

The evening will begin with networking/social time (6:30-7:00 PM) followed by our speaker (7:00-8:30 PM).

Dianna Gubbay, BA, MFA, CCH has maintained a family practice in classical homeopathy in New York City since 1996. Her homeopathic studies included completion of program through the Devon School of Homeopathy, the National Institute of Classical Homeopathy and the Dynamis School for Advanced Homeopathic Studies. She also trained with Edward C. Whitmont, renowned Jungian analyst and author The Alchemy of Healing. Currently, Ms. Gubbay is on the faculty of the School of Homeopathy in New York where she is also clinical supervisor. She is a member of the Registered Society of Homeopaths and is certified by the Council for Homeopathic Certification.

Ms Gubbay is also an artist with a Master of Fine Arts degree. In her study and practice of homeopathy, she has found a satisfying union of art and science.
