

The SW Branch of the Connecticut Holistic Health Association

presents

Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD) A Panel Discussion with

Mark Goldenberg, DC – Chiropractic Neurologist

Discussing new brain based approaches to helping children with learning challenges.

Rebecca Karchere, MS – Nutritionist

Providing growing scientific evidence indicating the connection between behavior and nutritional status and the need for a multifaceted treatment approach to ADHD.

Christina Shannon, ND – Naturopathic Physician

Focusing on dietary modifications and food additives; food and environmental allergies and toxins, including those that are metal and chemically based.

Join us on

Tuesday, January 13th, 2004

7 – 9 pm

at Norwalk Community College

East Campus Building Auditorium - Richards Avenue, Norwalk, CT

Directions from your home: www.mapquest.com

Free to members and the public