

CHHA

The Connecticut Holistic Health Association

presents

Cancer of the Colon: Origins, Psychology, Alternative Treatments

The presentation is a panel dialogue regarding cancer of the colon. CHHA members will get insights into how these modalities and causes can help you as practitioners in your own field. Open to the public ~ Learn about a holistic health approach to this disease.

With:

Dorothy Martin-Neville, MA, LMFT, LPC, CSH

State-licensed psychotherapist.

Director and founder of The Institute of Healing Arts and Sciences, LLC.

Whitney Miller, ND

Naturopathic Physician with her scope of practice being broad based and preventive in nature.

H. Robert Silverstein, MD

Board-certified in internal medicine and cardiology. Primary areas of practice are in preventive medicine and cardiology, with a specialty in cholesterol control.

Wednesday, September 24, 2003

7:00pm-8:30pm (doors open at 6:30pm for tea)

University of Connecticut Health Center
Main Building, Friends Conference Room #LM034
263 Farmington Avenue Farmington, CT 06030

Directions from your home: www.mapquest.com

Free to members and the public