

Awaken Your Perception, Expand Consciousness with Life Essences

Join us for 3 days with Ben Risby-Jones at the Lotus Healing House in Redding, CT

Life Essences are a spiritual tool of seven essences sourced from around the world and made by Ben Risby-Jones. Together these essences provide individuals with seven levels of 120-day intensive courses to self-mastery, helping people to deepen their sense of purpose and experience fulfillment in their lives.

The Essences provide a favorable internal energetic environment to evolve an individual's consciousness. Life Essences promote the development of an individual's self-awareness of the seven fundamental aspects of the human condition. These seven aspects are represented individually in each of the essences yet collectively they are more than their parts.

Each essence represents one of the seven universal aspects of the human condition. The seven essences bridge together our most animalistic aspects to our purest soul expression and help us to integrate these together into a purposeful and meaningful life.

There are seven levels available to open your perceptions to who you are.

The Golden Path

This is a two-day course that takes participants on a journey of self-discovery through comprehensive dialogs and carefully created experiential processes designed to develop higher levels of self-awareness.
